

WHAT IS A FREEDOM PASS?

The freedom pass for older people gives free travel on most public transport in London after 9.00am Monday to Friday (9.30am on most National Rail services within the London area), and all day at weekends and on public holidays. This pass may also be used to travel on local bus services in the rest of England under the terms of the Concessionary Bus Travel Act 2007.

See Information leaflet LBS07/08 Revised Feb 2008 for further details, which will be given to you with your pass.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Men and women aged 60 and over whose sole or principal residence is in a London borough.

NATIONAL SCHEME

From 1 April 2008, all freedom passes issued to older London residents can be used on local bus services anywhere in England as set out in the Concessionary Bus Travel Act 2007.

Outside of London, these pass holders will be able to travel free between 9.30am and 11.00pm Monday to Friday and all day at weekends and on public holidays. You will need to show your freedom pass and photocard to the bus driver.

A freedom pass will only be valid outside London if it has been renewed and re-stickered with a 2010 expiry date, a red rose logo and a bus hologram.

The pass will not be valid on trams, light railway, metro or train services outside of London.
